Significance

Orders went out from the Navy Department late this atternoon to put the tronclads Miantonomah and Katahdin late commission on the 10th instant. They are lat the League Island up for a year or two past. It is said at the department that the purpose of putting them in commission is to make beeths for the survivors of the Maine, now at Key West waiting on the court of inquiry, which without doubt will have inished with them by the 10 n.

The Miantonomah is a formidable double tourieted monitor carrying four 10 inch gains. She is of 3 990 tons displacement and steams 10), knots per hour In addition to her main balt by she tarries a secondary battery of rand hing gues and her turrets are clad with II, such a mor. Her commander has no yet been definitely selected. The hatahdin, otherwise known as the Ammen iam, is a freak in naval architecture and although opinions are divided as to her qualities, there is little doubt that her presence in any harbor would make an enemy anxious. Even inwal officers are apparently as much in the dark as the civilians as to what the court's opinion is at the present region.

Key West to Prevent Local Demonstration.

Key West, March 1. The afternoon session of the court began at 2 o'clock and an anjurnment was taken about 4 until 10 temorrow morning. The whole number of ralisted men examined curling the day was ten.

Adm ral Sicard has requested Dr. Maloney, the mayar of hay West, to prevent a local demonstration when the funeral of the Marne's dead occurs. He had taked that in the event of a parade bring formed by the residents, that only American flags shall be displayed. Mayor Maloney has promised to carry out Admiral Sicard's wishes as far as possible, but doubts whether the strong Cub'n and any Spraish sentiment can be suppressed. All the funeral arrangements will be under the direction of Commonder McCallan of the Marbiehead. Blowing Up to Maine Was Plactically Eliminated.

Washington, March I Secretary I ong was seen shortly after the cubinet meet ling and stated that in his judgment any official particulation by the Spanish gray roment in the blowing up of the Mine was practically eliminated. This statement was made as an expression of the Secretary's personal opinion. It guines speedy circulation, however, and was eliborated to the point of being an official declaration that the eliment of brainsh responsibility for the Maine disaster was no longer to be considered.

When Mr. Ling returned to the Navy Department he was asked as to the exact nature of this statement. He said it had been rather a cashal and passing allustion more in the lipe of a response to some courteous question from the vigilant representatives of the press. He said that he had intended to say that there was an abalement in the agitation and existence there the subject. As to Spanish responsibility, he had said that "any filicial participation by the Spanish gow roment in the blowing up of the Maine was practically eliminated in my judgment."

Divers Get to Work in Earnest. Divers Getto Work in Earnest.

Havana, March. 1. The divers on the Right Arm got to work this morning in earnest. Capt. Everett was in charge, and the water being lower than usual, it was seen that the streage hatch was partly clear though blocked by one of the smokesticks. The divers succeeded in entering the after torpedo compartment, where they hoped to find the bodies of Lieut Jepkins and Mertitt, as well as the remains of others of the trew. These officers were last seen in this compartment, and up to this morning the divers feared to enter it.

Washington, March 1. In the Senate today al motion by Mr. Hoar, (Miss.), to non-concur in the House ameniments to the bankruptev bill, drew a speech from Mr. Stewart (Neb), in which he vigorously denounced the measure passed by the House. He declared it was an atrochas measure of diabolical intent and could only result in grinding the poor debtor the more deeply into the financial mire. The Alaska homestead and railway right of way bill was under discussion during the gipeter part of the session, Mr. Rawlins (Utah) concluding his apecule begun yesterday, in opposition to the measure. The resolution of Mr. Bacon (Ga.), providing for a bronze tablet to be erected in the capitol building in memory of the officers and sailors who passed.

The House

Washington, March 1 The House today entered upon the consideration of the Loud bill relative to second class matter. The bill is identical with the billipassed at the last Congress, but Mr.
Loud, its author, gave notice of an amendment permitting the transmission at pound rates, of sample copies up to ten per cent, of the bone fide circulation of the newsprpr, periodical. This amendment removes much opposition to the bill. Only three speeches were delivered today. Mr Loud made an exhaustive speech in its favor, claiming that the government practically paid a subsidy of $40 000,000 to the proprietors
of publications, which now get access to the mails at pound rates, as the cost of transporting mail and handing averaged 8 cents per pound. Mr. Moon (Dom., Tenn) spoke in apposition to the bill and Mr. Perkins (Rep., lowa) in favor of it. The debate will continue until Thursday, when the vete will be taken at 4 o'clock.

Further Explanation of the Difficul-ties

Weshington, March I Consul General Lee has made a further explanation of the difficulties in the way of relatives who seek to accure the removal to the United States of the remains of ruch of the Victims of the Maine explosion as have already been interred. Senator Furbanks, of Indiana, requested the State Department to obtain permission for the exhumation and removal of the body of young Keves, and the request being submitted to 6 meral Lee, called forth the following response:

"Most bodies buried some days ago are recognizable. Against Spanish law to exhume until the expiration of five years. Neither steamers nor authorities permit shipment of bodies unless at once embalmed and in metalic cases. Cost of embalming and encasing from $600 to $500 each."

Verifying Testimony Previously

Key West, March 1. A good part of the time of the court today was devoted to verifying testimony previously given, the stenographers reading their official transcripts of the evidence and the witnesses confirming their correctness.

Apparently but few vital questions were asked, the morning being seemingly devoted to routine work.

Cuban Question Gone Over With No Actual Bevelopments.

Wash ugton, March 1 The main interest of the day in connection with the Maine inquiry centered in a statement of Secretary Long following the cablust meeting that in his personal opinion and others participation by the Spaulah government in the blowing up of the Maine was now practically eliminated from the studied this statement was not format or official and was made by Mr. I ong as he walked away from the White House. As usual the various cabinet officers.

I ong as he walked away from the White thouse. As usual the various cabinet officers were beauged with inquiries as to the questions before the mering and in response to these importunities, the Secretary rather carefully summed up the sit vation in a few words, stating that most of the time had been given to the outrages on colored postmasters in the boult. Naturally the Cuban situation had been gone over, he said, but there were no actual developments, and he felt that public excitement over the sut; I had no ternally abated. The Secr. ary's state tent that any participation by the spanish government in the blowing up of the Mane was practically eliminated, in his judgment, was speedily given wide circulation spart from the questing references which had accompanied it.

It immediately started much comment treats tion apare from the questing references which had accompanied it.

It immediately attarted much common and discussion and when Mr. Long returned to the Navy Department after lunch he found that what he had intended to convey was being given the force of an official declaration that Spain's responsibility for he dead or had been almanated. In order to make clear his meaning as a personal expression of opinion Mr Long dictated a statement to offset enlarged versions of what he had said Persons recupying the closer relations with the becretary said that the opinion expressed was such as anyone might give with the facts now at hand.

In creat in the proceedings larged somewhat today owing to the utter facility of all attempts to gratify the general currency. The correspondent of the Assembled Press placed before one of the members of rose court the letter signed Vaclanist, giving alleged details of the hing of the Mane's torpedo holes with dynamite cartridges and their subsequent exposed by an electric wire. It is reported here that the court of ingular will return to Havana tomorrow, the reported had not been confirmed when this despites was field.

Mi Long desired to have it clearly industricted that this was an expression of his individual judgment, and not an odinal decileration to be construed as; a conclinion drawn from the evidence submitted to him.

Later as a means of disposing of all doubt as to the exact inture of the Secretivy's larguage, he dictated the following statement:

"The man thing we talked about in cubinet were the outrages on the postmasters, and a white man in Georgia, and one a colored man in South Carolina "In regard to the Cubin situation I said I thought things were growing quicter every day, and as far as my judgment wint! was inclined to think that any official participation on the part of the Spanish government in the disaster was no w practically eliminated."

Blowing Up of Maine Was Practically Eliminated.

Washington, March 1 Secretary Long was sen shortly after the culinet meet ling and staided that in his judgment any official patherpation by the Spanish gever, and the blowing up of the Mine was practically eliminated. This statement was made as at expression of the cretary's personal opinion. It gained speedy circulation, however, and was it borated to the point of being an official declaration that the element of Spanish responsibility for the Maine disaster was no longer to be considered.

When Mr. Long returned to the Navy Department he was asked as to the exact nature of this afatement. He said it had been rather a facual and passing allution more in the lique of a response to some courteous question from the vigilant representatives of the press. He said that he had intended to say that there was an abatement in the agitation and ex fement over the sub, et. As to Spanish cesponsibility, he had said that "any fflierd participation by the Spanish cay considered in the Bailen of the Maine was practically eliminated in my judgment."

Washington, March 1 In the Senate today a motion by Mr. Hoar, (Miss), to non-concur in the House amendments to the bankrapitey bill, drew a speech from Mr. Stewart (Neb), in which he vigorously denounced the measure passed by the House He dectared it was an atrochis measure of diabolical intent and could only result in grinding the poor debtor the more deeply into the financial mire. The Alaska homestead and railway right of way bill was under discussion during the greater part of the session, Mr. Rawlins (Utah) concluding his spetch begun yesterday, in opposition to the measure. The resolution of Mr. Bacon (Ga), providing for a brouze tablet to be created in the capitol building in memory of the officers and sailors who lost their lives in the Maine disaster was passed.

The House.

Washington, March 1. The House today entered upon the consideration of the Loud bill relative to second class matter. The bill is identical with the bill passed at the last Congress, but Mr.
Loud, its author, gave notice of an antendment permitting the transmission as pound rates, of sample copies up to ted per cent. of the bone fide circulation of the per cent. of the bone fide circulation of the persper, periodical. This ampendment removes much opposition to the bill. Only three speeches were delivered today. Mr Loud made an exhaustive speech in its favor, claiming that the government cractically paid as subsidy of $10 000,000 to the proprietors
of publications, which now get access to the mails at pound rates, as the cost of transporting mail and handling averaged $$Cents per pound. Mr. Moon (Dem.,

As usual the various cabinet officers were bisinger! with inquiries as to the questions before the me ing and in response to these importunited, the Secretary rather carefully summed up the studion in a few words, stating that most of the time had been given to the outrages of colored postmysters in the rough Naturally the Cuban sleading had been good over he said, but there were no actual developments, and he felt that public excitement over the suffict had materially abated. The Secritary's state near that any partialpation by the Spanish government in the hlowing up of the Mathe was practically eliminated, in his judgment, was speedily given while incolation apart from the questing references which had accompanied it. It immediately started much comment and discussion and when Mr. Long returned to the Niety Department after lints he found that what he had intended covery was being given the force of an official declaration that Nosio's re-

CONVICTIONS MODIFIED.

"Intentionally Blown Up" Re ports Based Largely on Speculation—Excellent Pr.

her West, March 1 The second day's session of the court of inquiry is over and nothing new is known righting the fate of the Maine, it all events outside the members of the court. Some who considerity declared a work ago that the court had already fund, first the vessel was intentionally blown up have modified this conviction, and for the most fart admit that such reports must be as a largely on speculation.

Even haval officers are appreprity as much in the dark as the civilians as to what the court's opinion is at the present member.

Excellent progress has been made in the examination and the court will probably heigh up its work here tomorrow. It members will then be taken back to fit was on the Magarove.

Luterest in the proceedings larged somewhat today owing to the utter futility of all attempts to gratify the general curiosity. The correspondent of the Assoluted Fress placed before one of the admires of the court the letter signed Machinist, giving alleged details of the filling of the Maine's torpedo holes with unmante curiringes and their subsequent expission by an electric wire. It is reported here that the court of inquiry will return to Havana tomorrow, the report had not been confirmed when this deep at the was filed.

Mi. Long desired to have it clearly understood that this was an expression of his individual judgment, and not an official declaration to be construed as a conclusion draw from the evidence submitted to him.

Later as a means of disposing of all doubt as to the exact mature of the Sec-mitted to him.

Later as a means of disposing of all doubt as to the exact inture of the Secretary's language, he dictated the following statement

"the main thing we talked about in cab net were the outrages on the postmasters, one a white man in Georgia, and one a colored man in South Carolina.

"In regard to the Cubin situation I and I thought things were growing queter every day, and as far as my judgment went I was inclined to think that any official participation on the part of the Spitush government in the disaster was no w practically climbated."

Havina, March 1. The steamer Bache has been ordered to leave for the Dry lortegas with five American wounded, all that are row left here, and one body. Admard Sucard intends having a naval funeral over the bodies returned by the Bache, but may postpone the ceremony until others have been received, so that all may be formally intered at the same time. This morning a collision occurred between a party of guerillas and several employes of the street cleaning department, near Trille Park. Five policemen interfered, using revolvers. Four of the combatants were shot and three policemen were wounded. Three arrests were made.

Under the first French empire the administration of the prison of Sainte-Pelagie was so loose that it was not rare for accused persons to lie there six months without knowing the cause of their incarceration. The following adventure, narrated in "The Dungeons of Old Paris," discloses the fact that release under similar conditions of ignorance was not impossible.

lease under similar conditions of ignorance was not impossible.

The doctor had given to a prisoner who was slightly ill an order for the baths. Not knowing in what part of the prison the infirmary was situated, he presented his order to a tipsy turnkey, who opened the outer door of the prison.

M. Guillon, a free man without being aware of it, took the narrow street to be a sontry's walk and went a few paces without finding any one to direct him. Returning to the sentry at the door, he inquired where were the taths.

"The baths?" said the sentinel.

"The prison baths."

"The prison baths, "said the sentinel, "are probably in the prison, but you can't get in there."

"What—I can't get into the prison?

NEEDS to-day. All kinds of White Goods, Towels, Cottons for Sheets and Pillow Cases, and Sheets and Pillow Cases made up are always in my store---in any quantity that's wanted. Each is the very best of its kind---I don't keep second-quality goods. As for Hamburgs, not in all Maine is there a better assortment of the fine imported goods than you'll find here. I've a choice line of Valenciennes Lace---many ele-

"Ancient Reliques Appropriately Bestewed." The venerable and time-honored old Ramage printing press, brought he this city by the late patriarchal printing Press, brought he this city by the late patriarchal printing Peter Edes, Esq., has been mustered up from the nebwebs and dust of an afterchamber and perchased by several measures of the Mechanic Association, to be presented by them in conjunction with the poblishers of The Wing And Courner, to the measure of the Banger Mechanic Association, to be kept in perpetual remembrance as a useful instrument with the pioners of civilization, in the valley of the Perobscof. This association has already accomplated a valuable collection of internal and curiosities, and it was thought highly appropriate that the relique of the elden time should be deposed where it good be at any that examined by those who reverence the by gone and antique.

amined by those who reverence the bygone and antique.

While the subject of presenting this press was under consideration, we necidentally learned that the old arm editoriol chair of Mr. Eles was in the city.
The thought struck us that it would be a very appropriate article to go in company with the press. We accordingly called upon the dwner of the chair, Miss Martin Eles, daughter of the late Peter Eler, E.q., and make known the object of our wish. Miss Edes, on finding that we were really desirous of obtaining is for the Association, readily signified her willingness to part with it for the purpose; and also permitted us to beg from Leberty Tree, on the repeal of the Stamp Act.

The chair is a fine, welt-made mahogary frame, having a large square seat and circular back, with a stull d nearbleather seat. It appears now as though it might do active service for centuries to come. Is conversation with the generous donor of the chair, welearned with highest satisfaction that this was the arm-chair of her grandfather, Benjamin Edes, and was in use by him in Boston previous to the flustracion of the test and dering the memorable period when his office was attack d by British fours, as detailed in a pamphler published by the late Peter Edes, Esq., during the last few years of his life.

These articles will be presented to the Association on Friday evening next. The last few years of his life, time a strong desire to become possessed of the chair, alluded to, but there were so many associations connected with it that Mr. Eleg could not during his life time part with it, but brought it with him, when, nearly exhausted with old age, he removed, after inare years' absence, to this city from Baltimore, to live out the remainder of his days and to die among his whildren.

It has now been bestowed where it berty Tree, on the repeal of the Stamp will be carefully preserved and duly cherished.

It may be proper to remark, that the association have leased the large and elegant hall in Smith's block, are putting it in complete repair, and will sometime during the next week remove from their present hall, which has for sometime been too small for the accommodation of their meetings, to the new hall where there will be abundance of room.

It so happened that Andrew Johnson and his opponent for the United States senate, Gus Henry, were to meet hi joint detain this precinct. The avening came. ate in this precinct. The evening came, ad hundreds of blue Irish eyes were on he two speakers as they ascended the strum. Henry opened, and as a bid-fir the Irish vote he told in withering tirms how Johnson, when in congress before, had voted against a bill for an sppropriation to assist Ireland during a fine of famine. He biniself had done yeoman work for the passage of the bill, while this other man, who was not point, and the speaker made the most of it burning before it the lamp of his eloquence until the crowd were wild with excitement. Then Henry sat down, with excitement. Then Henry sat down, and Johnson got up amid catcalls and scoffs to answer him.

"What my opponent has told you is true," he said. "Ireland was unfering, and I voted against an appropriation for high relief, for the money which it was thus proposed to give away was not thus proposed to give away was not mine, but waits: xours begans it was mine, but yours; yours because it was not mine, but yours; yours because it was it the public coffers. I refused to give a large money which did not belong to he, but I went down into my own pocket ethand out of my own private funds—which I had a right to bestow—I subscribed $200 to the relief fund which was being quietly raised. How much of his own money did Mr. Henry give? Not a cent. He was too busy trying to give away yours. Now, gentiemen, which of us two did the better part by suffering I reland?" The effect of this was magical. The catcalls were now for Henry and

The overture was one of Offenbach's best compositions and it was played with musicianly spirit and harmony. The symptony of the evening was Mendelssolin's No. 4 (Italian) in A major, which is deemed one of his two best works of this character. It is reflective of the supply skies and happy conditions of j∋yous Italy.

Three of its movements were played last evening. The brightness of the allegro vicace gave way to the andente con moto, an impressive change from vivscious strains to a dignitied vein, and that in turn to the brilliant music of the finale, saltarello presto. The various musical shades were beautifully expressed by the orchestra. The Gounod, Randel and "Rebin Hood" numbers were rendered with excellent effect.

Mr. E. E. Holden, of Boston, forme ly of Bangor, was the soloist. Mr. Holen possesses a mellow tenor voice of fine imber and well knows how to obtain very pleasing effects with it. Ifis Haydo recitative and aria were well sung and the cluster of songs which followed was very enjoyable, "Bloom Is on the live" being specially taking. Mr. Holden was warmly and deservedly encored.

Miss Garland's accompaniments were models of skill.

A patriotic and stirring feature was the playing of "The Stan Spangled Banoer" by the orchestra as the last number of the concert.

The sixth and last concert of this course will be given early in April, with a programme largely made up of selec-tions from works by Richard Wagner.
